

6. Practice Direction No 2 of 1999 - Court Attire – Wigs

With certain exceptions, the Judges of the Supreme Court will not wear wigs when exercising the civil jurisdiction of the Court including on appeal to the Court at first instance, and on appeal from the Court to the Court of Appeal and matters referred to the Full Court as from 1 July 1999. The exceptions apply to ceremonial sittings and sittings of the Full Court for the admission or discipline of legal practitioners and where a Judge or Judges decide otherwise in particular circumstances.

Wigs will not be worn by counsel when wigs are not worn by the member or members of the Court.

14 May 1999